AU AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE

Philosophy and Objectives

“Those who have sacrificed their must be recognized, promoted and rewarded.” So wrote Rev. Prathip Martin Komolmas lives and time by their creative loyalty and positive contributions to the institution in the Faculty and Staff Development Policies, July 22, 1993. The philosophical underpinnings of the AU Academic Awards were simply that good deeds and achievements must be recognized and awarded. The President had often expressed his wish to establish academic awards as incentives for the academic community. Evaluation of job performance for this purpose was undertaken. After a considerable length of time, the administrators decided to introduce the awards. These awards aim to both reward faculty members for past performances and encourage future efforts. As a reward, it demonstrates our belief that those selected have met and surpassed the standards of excellence for the award given. The awards are also meant to encourage future efforts of not only the reward recipients but others who may take note that they, too, will be recognized for superior performance. The AU Academic Awards are granted periodically to those who met the selection criteria.

Historical Background

One of the philosophies of Assumption University is that good deeds and achievements done by any member must be recognized and awarded. The first conferment of awards was initiated in 1997 under the name AU Academic Awards. Only lecturers were nominated for these awards under six categories. Then, three-tier system of achievements (first, second, and third class with the first as the highest in each category) was announced in 1999 to take effect in 2000 (AU Academic Awards, December 24, 1999, p. 12). In the year 2000, the name of the awards was changed to AU Awards for Excellence. The purpose is to reward not only teaching staff but also the non-teaching staff who daily facilitate in the management and operation of the institution.

AU Awards for Excellence

Each award was named after an illustrious person found in Catholic Church history and also in memory of our predecessors who had worked long and hard to carry out their teaching mission. The general policies governing each award were laid down by the AU Academic Awards Committee in 1997. These policies are subject to review, re-interpretation and modification as may be called for. Except for the St. Montfort Award, St. De La Salle Award and St. Joseph Award, the awards are given in three classes. The second and third class awards are meant to recognize mid-level and junior AU faculty members and staff who have performed well above the norm as compared to their peer group. The awards are as follows:

St. Montfort Award Illustrious Service Award

The St. Montfort Award was named after St. Louis Marie Grignon de Montfort (1673-1716), the founder of the Brothers of St. Gabriel. He is our spiritual master who walked before us toward the Living God. Following in his footprints, we can proceed on a path to union with God. The Brothers of St. Gabriel in Thailand consider him to be a model for religious life and for their educative mission.

This award is given for faithful, dedicated and outstanding services rendered to the University by senior administrators whose career spans more than twenty-five years.

St. Michael Award
Public Service Award
(First, Second, and Third Class)

The St. Michael Award was named after St. Michael the Archangel, the protector of the people of God.

The award also honors the name of Brother Michael, one of the 13 French Brothers who moved from Thailand to India during World War II. He was appointed the master of novices at Eachinkadu, Yercaud, South India, tasked with the training of a number of senior Brothers of the Province of Thailand.

This award comes in three classes and is given to University members who have provided academic and/or other significant services to society, and who have represented the University in academic and supporting activities that are acknowledged by the public. In so doing, they uphold and promote the University's reputation and stature.

St. Hilaire Award
Distinction in Writing Award
(First, Second, and Third Class)

The St. Hilaire Award was named after St. Hilaire who was born at the beginning of the fourth century at Poitiers in France. He was a bishop and Doctor of the Universal Church.

Brother Hilaire was one of the first five pioneering Brothers to arrive in Thailand in 1901. He was a well-known educator at Assumption College, Bangkok. He mastered the Thai language so well that he became an unparalleled Siamese Linguist. He wrote Thai language manuals, the first of which, Darun Suksa, was considered by all as the very best source for the learning of the Thai language.

This award comes in three classes and is designated for those who achieved distinction through academic writings in the form of articles and books.

St. Martin de Tours Award
Excellence in Performance Award
(First, Second, and Third Class)

St. Martin de Tours, for whom St. Martin de Tours Award is named, was a Roman soldier raised in Italy. Finding God, he converted to Christianity and became an unwilling soldier. Later he was a disciple of Hilaire of Poitiers and, still later, became the Bishop of Tours. The award was also named in memory of Brother Martin de Tours, one of the five Brothers who first entered Siam on October 20, 1901.

This award is designated for lecturers and administrators: who discharged their duties and responsibilities conscientiously and superbly: who exhibited high standards of efficiency, excellence and quality in teaching, counseling, and duties such as the composition of test materials, the framing of examination papers and other academic related factors. The award is also for non-teaching staff who add to the University learning process.

St. Bernard Award
Special Merit Award
(First, Second, and Third Class)

The St. Bernard Award was named after St. Bernard (1090-1153), an abbot and later named Doctor of the Church. He was a Cistercian monk. He wrote profusely and movingly concerning the Lord Jesus, spirituality, the Scriptures, and the Blessed Mother.

The award also recognized Brother Bernard Mary whose idea of adding a degree program to the existing Assumption Commercial College (ACC) program that eventually led to the establishment of ABAC and hence Assumption University.

This award is intended for University members who exhibited special managerial skills, and who performed their tasks and assignments beyond the normal calls of duty such as initiating, restructuring or reengineering of programs for an office or department, or providing voluntary services for improving, upgrading systems and procedures, and participating in other artistic or scientific activities for the welfare of society.

St. Thomas Aquinas Award
Research Award
(First, Second, and Third Class)

The St. Thomas Aquinas Award was named after St. Thomas Aquinas in respect for his special talents that he devoted in full measure to the search for the Eternal Truth. St. Thomas Aquinas was a great Dominican teacher (1225-1274). He traveled and wrote extensively. His two Summas should not obscure his other biblical, theological and philosophical writings. He dedicated his brilliant talents to the investigation of the sublime truth of God in the light of faith and the human intellect. He is the patron saint of all Catholic schools.

This award is given to those who contribute through their research to the promotion, enhancement or the reputation and prestige of the University. Their research should result in publications, patents and/or other innovative materials or feature.

St. De La Salle Award Commendable Service Award

The St. De La Salle Award is named in honor of St. De La Salle, a learned man and Patron Saint of all teachers, who is credited with writing the pedagogy of the teaching profession and the twelve virtues of teachers.

This award recognizes and rewards faculty members who have served exclusively as lecturers for over twenty-five years at Assumption University, maintaining high standards of excellence in their profession.

St. Joseph Award Dedicated Service Award

The St. Joseph Award is named after St. Joseph. The Bible mentions him as a humble and just man. The Catholic Church has proclaimed Saint Joseph as the Patron Saint of all workers.

This award recognizes and rewards full-time staff members who, having served at Assumption University for at least twenty-five years, in their everyday work and roles, go beyond themselves in bringing service with satisfaction to their colleagues and students, in selfless ways.

Research Fellow

The title “Research Fellow” is conferred upon a distinguished Professor or Lecturer before he retires from active service at the university.

Individuals appointed to this honorary position display a deep love for research as a pathway to truth. Their endeavors in revealing inspirational truths through research are indeed commendable and worthy of recognition.

This recognition also includes individuals who have contributed, through their intellectual works, to the strengthening of the university’s expertise either through writing textbooks, creating a faculty or setting the intellectual standard for academic connaisances.

Rev. Brother President

Rev. Brother President Emeritus

Rev. Brother Rector Magnificus

Faculty Members and Distinguished Guests

It is an honor that the President graces the conferral ceremony for AU Awards for Excellence 2024. Prior to the awards conferral, I would like to present you the historical background, philosophy and objectives of the AU Awards for Excellence and the significance of the awards for Assumption University's community.

The AU Awards for Excellence was officially initiated on 22 July 1993 by Rev. Bro. Prathip Martin Komolmas. He initiated the policy which he wrote: "Those who have sacrificed their lives and time by their creative loyalty and positive contributions to the institution must be recognized, promoted and rewarded."

The first conferral of awards was initiated in 1997 under the name AU Academic Awards under six categories. Then, the three-tier system of achievements: first, second, and third class, with the first as the highest in each category was announced in 1999 to take effect in 2000. In the year 2000, the name of the awards was changed to AU Awards for Excellence. In 2008, the President of Assumption University decreed the inception of the Professor of the Order of St. Gabriel as part of the annual award ceremony to honor faculty members who are dedicated to teaching and providing service through other avenues within the university.

Since its conception, Assumption University has always deemed it appropriate to acknowledge the contributions of everyone within the university community, especially individuals who have contributed immensely to the success and attainment of academic goals of the university. Acknowledgement of such sacrifice, commitment and dedication to teaching, research, administration and service is a graceful act. Individuals who have shown such dedication and hard work are worthy of recognition and award.

The philosophical underpinnings of the AU Awards for Excellence are simply that good deeds and achievements must be recognized and awarded. These awards aim to both reward faculty members for past performances and encourage future efforts. As a reward, it demonstrates our belief that those selected have met and surpassed the standards of excellence for the award given. The awards are also meant to encourage future efforts of not only the award recipients but others who may take note that they, too, will be recognized for excellent performance.

In 2009, Rev. Bro. Prathip Martin Komolmas, President Emeritus, initiated two additional distinguished awards namely, St. De La Salle Award and St. Joseph Award which would be conferred to faculty and staff members who have made valuable contributions to the university and have been committed and dedicated to their profession, roles and responsibilities for over 25 years.

For the year 2024's AU Awards for Excellence, the University takes great pleasure in conferring

1. St. Martin de Tours Award for Excellence in Performance to three faculty members,
2. St. Bernard Award for Special Merit to one faculty member,
3. St. Thomas Aquinas Award for Research to one faculty member,
4. St. De La Salle Award for Commendable Service to seven faculty members,
5. St. Joseph Award for Dedicated Service to six staff members.

On this auspicious occasion, may I call upon Rev. Bro. Sirichai Fonseka, the President of Assumption University, to confer the AU Awards for Excellence.

Asst.Prof. Uree Cheasakul, Ph.D.

St. Martin de Tours Award for Excellence in Performance

Dr. Sasithorn Phonkaew

Awarded St. Martin de Tours Award for Excellence in Performance (Third Class)

Citation

Dr. Sasithorn Phonkaew began her academic journey as a scholarship student in the Hotel Management program at Assumption Business Administration College (now Assumption University), where she graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration, earning Magna Cum Laude, the second honors, in 1990. She continued her education with another scholarship, completing a Master of Arts in Communication at Pittsburg State University, USA, in 1994. Upon returning, she joined Assumption University as a full-time lecturer and later achieved a Ph.D. in Development Administration (International Program) from the National Institute of Development Administration (NIDA) in 2006.

Over the past three decades, Dr. Sasithorn has devoted herself to teaching, starting in the Department of Management and currently serving in the Department of Hospitality and Tourism Management under the Martin de Tours School of Management and Economics. Affectionately known as “Teacher Chompoo” (or Acharn Chompoo in Thai) by her students, she is admired for her kindness, clear explanations, and ability to simplify complex concepts with relevant examples. Beyond academics, she has provided unwavering support to students in their personal lives, always offering her time, guidance, and heartfelt advice.

Dean of Martin de Tours School of Management and Economics eloquently highlights her contributions, stating: “Great teachers are often recognized after reflecting on their lifetime of teaching. Their greatness is demonstrated through consistent results and their profound impact on their students.”

Over her three decades at Assumption University, Dr. Sasithorn has taught numerous essential courses in MSME's undergraduate programs, including Principles of Management, Innovation and Change Management, Business Research, and Marketing and Consumer Insights for the Hospitality and Tourism Industry. Dr. Sasithorn has consistently received high praise and excellent teaching evaluation scores from her students. Known for her exceptional communication skills, she has a remarkable talent for simplifying complex business theories, making them accessible and easy to understand, even as these theories and students' learning styles have evolved over time. Students often describe her as a compassionate listener and a deeply supportive teacher, both academically and personally. Her kindness has left a lasting impact on countless students, some of whom have gone on to join MSME as faculty members, fondly recalling the enjoyment and value they gained from her classes and mentorship.

“As the Dean of MSME and someone who has known her for over a decade, I am proud to call her a colleague and an impactful educator who has shaped future generations of business owners and entrepreneurs.”

In recognition of her outstanding contributions to education, Assumption University is honored to present the St. Martin de Tours Award for Excellence in Performance (Third Class) to Dr. Sasithorn Phonkaew on December 24, 2024.

Ms. Suchira Phoorithewet

Awarded St. Martin de Tours Award for Excellence in Performance (Third Class)

Citation

Ms. Suchira Phoorithewet has been a valued faculty member of Assumption University since 2003, currently serving in the Department of Marketing at the Martin de Tours School of Management and Economics. She earned her Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, majoring in Marketing, and her Master's Degree in Business Administration, both from Assumption University. In recognition of her academic achievements, she received The Rector's Award for Academic Excellence upon completing her Master's Degree.

Ms. Suchira has taught an extensive range of courses, including Principles of Marketing, Retail Management, Sales Promotion, Merchandising and Promotion, Integrated Marketing Communication, Communication and Digital Media Strategy, Introduction to Business, Marketing Management, Marketing Decision Making, and Business Essentials: A Design Thinking Approach. Additionally, she has served as the course coordinator for all these courses, except Introduction to Business.

With 20 years of experience, Ms. Suchira has consistently demonstrated a commitment to a hands-on, learning-by-doing approach, which has profoundly influenced her students' academic journeys. She is renowned for her ability to simplify complex theoretical concepts into practical, easily applicable lessons. Her engaging teaching style captivates students' attention, deepens their understanding, and provides valuable opportunities to apply knowledge in real-world contexts. Furthermore, her teaching materials are of exceptional quality, meticulously designed to enhance both student learning and comprehension.

In her latest teaching assignment, Ms. Suchira was tasked with leading the design of MSME's new business core course, Business Essentials: A Design Thinking Approach. This course is unique to MSME undergraduate programs and stands out as an offering not typically available at the undergraduate level, particularly for first-year students. By blending creativity with structure, the course delivers an effective and engaging learning environment. Through thoughtfully designed activities, group discussions, and semester-long projects, she enriches the student learning experience, ensuring a well-rounded and impactful education. Unsurprisingly, the course has received highly positive reviews from students, a testament to Ms. Suchira's teaching mastery.

Beyond her teaching responsibilities, Ms. Suchira inspires her students to embrace innovation, think critically, and adopt a positive, problem-solving mindset. Her guidance empowers students to take ownership of their learning, explore new ideas, and apply their knowledge meaningfully. This nurturing of confidence and curiosity extends beyond the classroom, equipping students to excel in their academic and professional endeavors.

In recognition of her invaluable contributions and unwavering dedication to teaching and learning, Assumption University is proud to confer the St. Martin de Tours Award for Excellence in Performance (Third Class) upon Ms. Suchira Phoorithewet on this auspicious date of December 24, 2024.

Ms. Supawan Rattanakom

Awarded St. Martin de Tours Award for Excellence in Performance (Third Class)

Citation

Ms. Supawan has been a dedicated faculty member at Assumption University since 2015. Her journey in education began at Assumption University in 2008 with a Bachelor's Degree in Biotechnology (Magna cum laude) and a Master's Degree in Food Biotechnology from a joint program between Assumption University and the University of California, Davis.

For almost a decade, Ms. Supawan has demonstrated unwavering passion and dedication to teaching as part of the department of mathematics team. Her commitment to polishing her teaching skills has not gone unnoticed. She was honored at the MSME family recognition day, receiving a prestigious teaching award from the school for her exceptional ability to promote student engagement. This distinction exemplifies her steadfast dedication to educational achievement, which has become a hallmark of her teaching career.

Ms. Supawan's teaching excellence is rooted in her innovative idea of rendering statistics approachable and engaging through interactive learning experiences. By seamlessly integrating real-world examples and facilitating engaging classroom discussions, she has created a learning environment where students actively participate in their own statistical discovery journey. Her innovative teaching methodology extends beyond theoretical understanding, encouraging students to apply statistical principles to their daily lives and challenging them to demonstrate their knowledge through creative business case presentations. This dedication to excellence, combined with her nurturing approach to student development, Ms. Supawan continues to leave an indelible mark on shaping the next generation of analytical minds.

For her valuable contribution to the enhancement of the teaching and learning and to the improvement of the quality of food technology education, Assumption University is pleased to confer the St. Martin de Tours Award for Excellence in Performance (Third Class) to Ms. Supawan Rattanakom on this auspicious date of December 24, 2024.

St. Bernard Award for Special Merit

Dr. Weeraya Donsomsakulkij

St. Bernard Award for Special Merit (Third Class)

Citation

Dr. Weeraya Donsomsakulkij currently serves as the Assistant to the Dean for QA and Management of Theodore Maria School of Arts (ARTS) since 2018 and a member of AU Performance Excellence Committee since 2023. She joined Theodore Maria School of Arts as a full-time lecturer in 2017. She received her Bachelor’ s Degree in Business English from Assumption University and her Master’ s Degree in Intercultural Anglophone Studies from University of Bayreuth and Doctoral Degree in English Studies and Anglophone Literature from Bayreuth International Graduate School of African Studies at University of Bayreuth, Germany in 2016. Since 2018, she has been dedicated to her QA duties as part of the EdPEx team of the School of Arts as well as the AU Performance Excellence Team of Assumption University.

As an instructor, Dr. Weeraya teaches major-requirement courses of the English for International Business (EIB) department which focus on critical thinking and analytical reading skills in business-related and language-oriented matters.

As a researcher, Dr. Weeraya has published 10 research papers in the field of Literary and Cultural Studies with the focus on Africa since 2014, and since 2021, she has been appointed as a research fellow of Africa Multiple Cluster of Excellence, University of Bayreuth, Germany.

As a member of the Arts administrative team, Dr. Weeraya launched the Empowering-Self Series – a space where Arts Alumni and Arts current students are connected to share work experience and soft-skills for future jobs since 2023. With the support from Dr. Chayada Thanavisuth, the Dean of the School of Arts and Dr. Hathaichanok Komintharachat, the EIB Chairperson, she initiated the MoU between Theodore Maria School of Arts and New Zealand Institute of Skills and Technology to provide more student opportunities for summer programs and internships in 2024.

As a member of AU Performance Excellence Committee, Dr. Weeraya has been contributing to improving the AU quality assurance based on EdPEx/TQA framework together with the AU OPPQA and the Office of Academic Affairs. This includes circulating EdPEx/TQA understanding among AU faculties in forms of workshops and trainings as well as to be an internal EdPEx assessor for annual AU EdPEx evaluations.

In 2024, Dr. Weeraya has been appointed as a certified TQA Assessor by Thailand Productivity Institute, an independent institute under the Ministry of Industry of Thailand.

In appreciation for her appreciable contributions and devotion in enhancing the prestige of Assumption University through her services, Assumption University is pleased to confer the St. Bernard Award for Special Merit (Third Class) to Dr. Weeraya Donsomsakulkij on this auspicious date of December 24, 2024.

St. Thomas Aquinas Award for Research

Dr. Rusma Kalra

Awarded St. Thomas Aquinas Award for Research (Third Class)

Citation

Dr. Rusma Kalra is an accomplished scholar and esteemed academic in the field of English Language Teaching. She graduated with First-Class Honors in Bachelor of Arts majoring in Business English from Assumption University and earned her Master's degree a year later. Her dedication and excellence led her to join Assumption University as a faculty member in 2010 and has since made significant research studies.

Currently, she concurrently serves as the Director for Research and Assistant to the Dean for Academic Affairs at the Theodore Maria School of Arts. Additionally, she is the editor of The New English Teacher Journal.

She moved the journal from TCI Tier 2 to Tier 1 by improving publication standards, attracting high-impact research, and maintaining rigorous peer-review processes. Under her leadership, The New English Teacher journal has successfully attained a Scopus Q1 ranking. Besides, she has served as a journal reviewer of numerous top-tier journals in the field of social sciences.

Recognizing her potential, with support from the faculty, namely from the dean Dr. Chayada Thanavisuth, she was awarded a full scholarship to pursue her doctoral studies at Thammasat University, where she earned a Ph.D. in English Language Teaching. Her research focuses primarily on English as a Second Language (ESL) and writing improvement, areas in which she has made significant contributions through her publications, with approximately ten research papers published, including several in prestigious Scopus-indexed journals. She has also actively shared her expertise at numerous national and international conferences, establishing herself as a respected voice in her field.

Among other publications, the following are her best journal papers, all created during her service at Assumption University:

1. Kalra, R. (2024). Exploring teacher's perceptions toward the integration of AI tools in the language classroom. NIDA Journal of Language and Communication, 27(41).

2. Kalra, R., & Siribud, S. (2020). Public speaking anxiety in the Thai EFL context. LEARN Journal, 13(1), 195–209.
3. Kalra, R., & Thanavisuth, C. (2018). Do you like my English? Thai students' attitudes towards five different Asian accents. Arab World English Journal, 9(4).

For her valuable contribution to research, Dr. Rusma Kalra is awarded the St. Thomas Aquinas Award for Research (Third Class) on this auspicious date of December 24, 2024.

St. De La Salle Award for Commendable Service

The St. De La Salle Award is given to faculty members who have served Assumption University as lecturers for more than twenty-five years. ASSUMPTION UNIVERSITY ANTHEM

Lyrics by : Thomas Khng
Music by : Lian Sek Lin
Arranged by : Capt. Veeraphan Vawklang

From every corner of the land,
We come to pursuit truth.
For integrity and progress, we stand
And learning's sterling worth
Uplifting virtue of mind and hand
With the glory of our youth.

We are the salt of the glorious earth
No task is too hard to do.
For Assumption and the land of our birth
We remain ever loyal and true
For excellence in all realms of effort
We give Assumption its due.

Assumption is the light that leads
Our youth to knowledge sure
Ever mind full of all our needs
It brings us to learning shore
Ennobling our academic deeds
Making our future secure!

GOD WILL MAKE A WAY

Words and Music by Don Moen

God will make a way where there seems to be no way.

He works in ways we cannot see.

He will make a way for me.

He will be my guide, hold me closely to his side, with love and strength for each new day.

He will make a way.

He will make a way.

By a roadway in the wilderness, he'll lead me, and rivers in the desert will I see heaven and earth will fade but his word will still remain.

He will do something new today.

WE WISH YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS

We wish you a Merry Christmas

We wish you a Merry Christmas

We wish you a Merry Christmas

And a Happy New Year...

Good tidings to you and whenever you are.

Good tidings for Christmas and a Happy New year. (repeat all)

BOUQUET OF HEARTS

Composed by: Siripong Santiyothin
ABAC Alumnus
ID 3913763

Songs of bliss from the heart of our hearts sung in your memory on your rapturous welcome birthday. We wish you full of happiness.

May the Lord of joy bless you, bless you His special child.
Happy Birthday to you, Happy Birthday to you, Happy Birthday to you. (repeat all)

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Happy Birthday to you, happy birthday to you, happy birthday,
happy birthday, happy birthday to you.

Happy is the man who loves the Lord. Happy is the man who walks in his way. Happy is the man who loves the Lord.
Happy is the man who walks in his way.

Happy Birthday to you, happy birthday to you, happy birthday,
happy birthday, happy birthday to you.

YOU ARE THE LIGHT OF MY SOUL

You are the light of my soul, O Lord. You are the candle in my life.
You are the light of my soul, O Lord. You keep the flame burning bright.
You are the One who lights my path. You lead me in the way of truth.
You are the Rock on which I stand. For ever more, I'll trust in you.
For evermore, I'll trust in you.
